

This Concept Plan is intended to provide guidance for the continued planning and development of the Central Park "and is subject to change". It is the intention of the Park Board and City of Maple Grove to complete this plan over a number of phases and years for the purpose of providing this community, when fully populated, a community park destination for both daily use and special public gatherings.

Maple Grove Central Park

Concept Plan