AGENDA ITEM: Special Use Permit – Across All Lines Fundraiser Walk

PREVIOUS ACTIONS: None

RECOMMENDED PARK BOARD ACTION:

Motion to approve a special use permit for Across All Lines to host a fundraiser walk at Town Green Park on July 30, 2022.

COMMENTS:

City Code section 22- 65 (7) prohibits sale of products or services in the parks without authorization from the Board.

Across All Lines, formally known as Firefighters with PTSD, is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) that serves first responders and veterans dealing with PTSD. They raise and train service and therapy dogs and place them with firefighters and veterans with PTSD. This walk is an annual event and the second year being hosted at Town Green. The event will consist of a vendor show, a walk around North Arbor Lake trail, music, food trucks and service animal adoption. This is a fundraising event with an estimated attendance of 100 people.

The Board approved the 2021 special use permit from Across All Lines.
