RE: Transfer of Ownership of K-9 “Calo”

Maple Grove Police Department K-9 “Calo” is no longer a viable resource to the canine program due to age and deteriorating health conditions.

The Maple Grove Police Department wishes to retire “Calo” from service in a humane fashion.

Due to the training that “Calo” received as a police canine and because of his unique relationship with his handler, “Calo” is unsuitable as a pet for anyone other than his handler.

Therefore, the Maple Grove Police Department requests that the Maple Grove City Council transfer ownership of “Calo” to his handler, Sergeant Keith Stuart, pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 412.211.

Pursuant to the attached City Council Resolution No. 23-072, if approved by the City Council, effective June 5, 2023, ownership of “Calo” shall be transferred to Sergeant Keith Stuart. Sergeant Keith Stuart agrees to accept all liabilities and responsibilities related to ownership of “Calo” and with no liability or claim upon the City.
