Division 5 – Variances and Appeals

Sec. 36-121. - General provisions and standards.

(a) Variances.

- (1) The city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals shall, after receiving the written reports and recommendations of the planning commission and the city staff, make findings of fact and decide upon requests for a variance by approving or denying the variance, in part or in whole, where it is alleged by the applicant that a non-economic, practical difficulty in the reasonable use of a specific parcel of property exists.
- (2) In considering all requests for a variance, the planning commission and the city council serving as the board of adjustments and appeals shall make findings of fact that the proposed action complies with the requirements of Minn. Stats. § 462.357 and any amendments thereto, which include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Variances shall only be permitted when they are in harmony with the general purpose and intent of city code and consistent with the comprehensive plan.
 - b. Variances may only be permitted when the applicant establishes that there are practical difficulties in complying with the zoning ordinance, meaning the property owner proposes to use the lot or parcel in a reasonable manner not permitted by the zoning code.
 - c. The plight of the property owner must be due to circumstances that are unique to the lot or parcel and is not created by the property owner.
 - d. The variances must not alter the essential character of the locality.
- (3) Circumstances are "unique" under subsection (a)(2)c. above to a lot or parcel for one of the following reasons:
 - a. Narrowness, shallowness or shape of a specific parcel of property or a lot existing and of record on September 30, 1976;
 - b. Exceptional topographic or water conditions of a specific parcel of land or lot; or
 - c. An existing significant tree or tree stand which would be affected by a structure other than a building. For purposes of this subsection, the phrase "significant tree or tree stand" shall mean a tree having a diameter at breast height of at least 12 inches or a clustering of trees averaging eight inches in diameter, excluding tree diameters of four inches or less in such average calculations.
- (4) Not altering the essential character of the locality under subsection (a)(2)d. above shall mean the proposed action will not, among other things:
 - a. Impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property.
 - b. Unreasonably increase the congestion in the public streets.
 - c. Increase the danger of fire or endanger the public safety.
 - d. Unreasonably diminish or impair established property values within the neighborhood, the character of the neighborhood, or in any way be contrary to the intent of this chapter.

- (b) Appeals from zoning decisions. The city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals shall, after receiving the written report and recommendation of the planning commission and the city staff, make a finding of fact and make a decision on appeals where it is alleged by the appellant that error has occurred in any order, requirement, decision or determination made by the zoning administrator in the enforcement of this chapter. However, such appeal shall be filed not later than 30 days after the applicant has received a written notice from the zoning administrator or the appeal shall be considered void. In considering requests for an appeal, the city council shall find that the requested action does not, among other things, alter the essential character of the locality as defined in subsection (a)(4) above.

- (c) Judicial appeals. A decision by the city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals shall be the final decision by the city. A person aggrieved by such decision within the meaning of Minn. Stats. § 462.361 may pursue a judicial appeal of such final decision in a court of competent jurisdiction, provided such judicial appeal is filed within 30 days after the person receives actual notice of such final decision. Failure to file such an appeal within 30 days is an incurable jurisdictional defect, and such an appeal is void.

(Code 1984, § 375:123(1); Ord. No. 11-06, § 1, 7-18-2011; Ord. No. 20-03, § 1, 5-4-2020)

Sec. 36-122. - Procedure for review and approval.

- (a) Requests for a variance or appeal shall be filed with the zoning administrator on an official application form.
- (1) Such application shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee as established by the city council as set forth in chapter 16, article XI.
 - (2) Such application shall also be accompanied by ten copies of detailed written and graphic materials necessary for the explanation of the request, and a list, obtained from and certified by the county, of property owners located within 350 feet of the boundary of the subject property.
 - (3) The request shall be placed on the agenda of the first possible planning commission meeting occurring after ten days from the date of submission. The request shall be considered as being officially submitted when all the information requirements are complied with.
- (b) The zoning administrator, upon receipt of the application, shall instruct the city clerk to set a public hearing for the next regular meeting of the planning commission.
- (1) The planning commission shall conduct the hearing, and report its findings and make recommendations to the city council.
 - (2) Notice of the hearing shall consist of the property identification number and street address or common description, a description of the request and a map detailing the property location, and shall be published in the official newspaper at least ten days prior the hearing, and written notification of the hearing shall be mailed at least ten days prior to all owners of land within 350 feet of the boundary of the property in question.
 - (3) Failure of a property owner to receive the notice shall not invalidate any such proceedings as set forth within this chapter.
 - (4) After the public hearing has been set, the city administrator shall instruct the appropriate staff persons to prepare technical reports where appropriate, and provide general assistance in preparing a recommendation on the action to the city council.
 - (5) The planning commission and city staff shall have the authority to request additional information from the applicant concerning operational factors or to retain expert testimony with the consent and at the expense of the applicant concerning operational factors, such information to be declared necessary to establish performance conditions in relation to all pertinent sections of this chapter.
 - (6) The applicant or a representative thereof shall appear before the planning commission in order to answer questions concerning the proposed variance request.
 - (7) The planning commission shall make findings of fact and decide to: (i) recommend approval or approval with conditions that are directly related to and must bear a rough proportionality to the impact created by the variance; or (ii) recommend denial of the request. The commission's recommendation and the city staff's report shall be presented to the city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals at its next regular meeting.

- (c) After receiving the planning commission's and city staff's report and recommendation concerning a request for variance or an appeal, the city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals shall have the option to set and hold a public hearing if deemed necessary on the request. If a hearing is set, notice of any such hearing shall be mailed not less than ten days before the hearing to all owners of property according to the county assessment records, within 350 feet of the boundary of the property to which the variance relates.
 - (1) Failure of a property owner to receive the notice shall not invalidate any such proceedings as set forth within this chapter.
 - (2) The city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals shall make findings of fact and shall decide whether to: (i) approve or approve with conditions that are directly related to and must bear a rough proportionality to the impact created by the variance; or (ii) deny a request for a variance or an appeal promptly after the request is officially submitted.
 - (3) A variance of this chapter or grant of an appeal shall be by four-fifths vote of the full city council serving as the board of adjustment and appeals.
 - (4) The zoning administrator shall notify in writing the originator of the variance request or appeal of the decision of the city council, serving as the board of adjustment and appeals.
- (d) Whenever an application for variance has been considered and denied by the city council, a similar application for the variance affecting substantially the same property shall not be considered again by the planning commission or city council for at least six months from the date of its denial, and a subsequent application affecting substantially the same property shall likewise not be considered again by the planning commission or city council for an additional six months from the date of the second denial unless a decision to reconsider such matter is made by not less than four-fifths vote of the full city council.

(Code 1984, § 375:123(2); Ord. No. 04-31, § 1, 12-20-2004; Ord. No. 11-06, § 1, 7-18-2011)

Sec. 36-123. - Lapse of variance or appeal.

- (a) Whenever within one year after granting a variance or appeal the use as permitted by the variance or appeal shall not have been completed or utilized, then such variance or appeal shall become null and void unless a petition for extension of time in which to complete or to utilize the use has been granted by the city council.
- (b) Such extension shall be requested in writing and filed with the zoning administrator at least 30 days before the expiration of the original variance or appeal.
- (c) There shall be no charge for the filing of such petition.
- (d) The request for extension shall state facts showing a good faith attempt to complete or utilize the use permitted in the variance or appeal.
- (e) Such petition shall be presented to the planning commission for a recommendation and to the city council for a decision.
