How to Obtain a Rental Dwelling License
In the City of Maple Grove

License Requirements

Our objectives are to maintain quality rental units within the city and protect the health, safety and welfare of renters. No person shall operate a rental dwelling without a Rental Dwelling license.

No person shall operate a rental dwelling unit without first having obtained a rental dwelling license from the city. The license shall be issued once every three (3) calendar years, coincide with the 3-Year Maintenance Inspection to be done after the initial conversion inspection and shall expire on December 31 on the third year following the issuance of the license. License renewals for the following years shall be filed on or before December 15 prior to the license expiration date.

Who Needs a License?

Licenses shall be issued for a single rental dwelling unit in the case of a free standing dwelling, a condominium, a townhouse, a dwelling in a cooperative, or a dwelling in a non-residential structure; for a two-unit rental dwelling unit; or for an apartment building.

A rental license is not required for dwelling units occupied by an immediate relative. For the purpose of this exemption, relative shall be defined as a husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, grandson, granddaughter, niece, nephew, grandfather, or grandmother. The compliance official may require sufficient written proof from the owner stipulating the relationship and living agreements.

When more than one building containing rental dwelling units exists on one premise, a separate license shall be required for each building.

What Happens If I Don’t Get a Rental Dwelling License?

A person who violates the provisions of this ordinance may be charged with a misdemeanor. Each day that a violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense. The compliance official may post the rental dwelling unit by appropriate signs or notices prohibiting occupancy, and may act to cause the rental dwelling unit to be vacated or remain vacant until a license and/or any violations are corrected.

Application Procedures

A rental license application can be obtained at the Community Development Department in the Maple Grove Government Center or by going online at http://maplegrovemn.gov/departments/community-development/rental-dwelling-licensing-program. Included in the packet of information are the application, Certificate of Compliance-MN Dept of Revenue, Certificate of Compliance-MN Workers’ Compensation Law, the Crime-Free/Drug-Free Housing lease addendum, the pre-inspection checklist and the Rental Housing Ordinance. The lease addendum is for your use only and is not currently required to be returned to the city.
A rental dwelling license application is required to be submitted with the appropriate fees to the Community Development Department.

The application must be completed with the owner’s name, mailing address, phone number and agent information if you do not live in one of the counties listed on the application.

A local agent is required if the property owner lives outside the Twin Cities Metropolitan area.

A compliance inspection is scheduled for the property once a completed application and fee are received. The owner should contact the Rental Housing Assistant to schedule this inspection.
